ARTICLE 2

Excludes: The Circuit Clerk of Adams County, the Administrative Assistant, the Assistant Circuit Clerk, all elected officials, all employees of Adams County, and other employees of the Circuit Clerk's office, and all confidential, managerial, and professional employees and supervisors as defined by the Illinois Public Labor Relations Act.

ARTICLE 3

Union Rights

Section 3.1. New Employee Orientation. The Employer will grant the Union twenty (20) minutes to orient, educate and update each new employee for the purpose of informing employees of their rights and obligations under this Collective Bargaining Agreement without loss of pay for the employees involved. New hires shall be given such orientation during the first week of their employment. This should be done in a fashion to cause a minimum of office disruption.

Section 3.2. Union Exclusivity. The Employer shall not meet, discuss, confer, subsidize or negotiate with any other employee organization or its representatives on matters pertaining to hours, wages, and working conditions for employees in the bargaining unit. Nor shall the Employer negotiate with employees over their hours, wages, and working conditions, except as provided herein.

Section 3.3. Union Representatives Recognized. The Employer recognizes all elected Stewards selected by the Union, and paid representatives of the International Association of Machinists and Aerospace Workers in all matters relating but not limited to negotiating, grievances, interpretation of this Agreement or in any other appropriate Employer/Union matters. Union agrees to notify the Employer of any elected Stewards.

Section 3.4. Duties of Representatives and Elected Officers. Subject to operational needs, one (1) designated Union Representative (Steward) or if the representative is unavailable, an alternate, may conduct the following business of the bargaining unit and no more than one (1) elected Executive Board member (President, Vice President, Recording Secretary, Financial Officer or Sgt. at Arms or Trustee) of Local Lodge 822 may conduct the following business of any of the Adams County bargaining units on the Employer's time:

1. The receiving, investigating and filing of complaints or grievances.
2. Participation in hearings.
3. Attendance at all joint meetings of Union officials, Stewards, and Judicial Administration.
4. Attendance at Lodge meetings. In the event that the Union provides a week's notice of the need to release the Union Representative or no more than one (1) of the members of the Local Lodge 822 Executive Board to attend a Lodge meeting, and provided that the Union will cooperate with the Employer by allowing reasonable rescheduling of other employees so as to allow for attendance of the designated persons, attendance may not be denied for operational reasons.

The Union will notify the Employer of any changes regarding selected representatives. The Union will provide the Employer a copy of all meeting notices that requires the elected representatives to be at said meetings.

In the event that any of these business items are performed during the employee's vacation, day off, holiday, non work shift, or any other non work time of the employee, the employee shall receive no compensation under this Section.

Section 3.5. Convention Delegates. One (1) Steward from the bargaining unit and no more than one (1) of the members of the Executive Board of Local Lodge 822, if the board member is a member of the bargaining unit, shall be allowed time off without pay for State or International Conventions or the one (1) week educational program at Placid Harbor if elected as an official to such function. The Union will cooperate with the Employer by allowing reasonable rescheduling of other employees so as to accommodate such leaves.

Section 3.6. Union Visitation. The authorized representative(s) of the International Association of Machinists and Aerospace Workers shall have reasonable access to the Employer's facilities after first notifying the Employer or office supervisor of the purpose for the visit. While engaging in such visits, the representatives will seek to minimize disruptions to office operations, and will abide by reasonable security measures generally applicable to visitors to the office.

Section 3.7. Bulletin Boards. The Employer will provide the Union with one suitable bulletin board in a convenient place, upon which the Union may post its notices and communications.

Section 3.8. Distribution of Agreement. The Employer will supply sufficient copies of this Agreement to the Union for distribution to members. All contract books will be printed by a Union printer if the Employer has them printed on the outside.

Section 3.9. Supervisors. Supervisors may continue to perform bargaining unit work which is incidental to their jobs. They may also perform bargaining unit work in accordance with past practice where such work is necessary to train a bargaining unit employee, or where the work could not otherwise be performed in a timely fashion. Such work shall not cause any layoffs or reductions of the bargaining unit. While it may be performed on an "as needed" basis, except for training purposes such work shall not be performed on a regularly scheduled basis. The Office Holder may perform any work that is necessary to perform his job and fulfill his statutory duties, including any work incidental to his job or statutory duties.

Dues Deduction

Section 4.1. Dues Deduction Authorization. Upon receipt of a signed authorization form from an individual, the Employer will deduct from said employee's pay the initiation, reinstatement fee, M.N.P.L. donation and monthly dues payable by him or her to the Union during the period set forth in said authorization.

Section 4.2. Timing of Deductions. Deductions shall be made on account of such fees, and/or dues in, nearly as practicable, equal installments from bi-weekly payroll checks.

Section 4.3. Tender of Dues to Union. The deductions shall be remitted to the Union no later than the fifteenth (15th) day of the month following the deductions made in the month. Section 4.4. Notice to Employer of Dues Information. The Secretary-Treasurer of the Union will from time to time notify the Employer in writing of the location in which the deductions are to be remitted, the amounts of initiation fees, reinstatement fees, and monthly dues.

Section 4.5. Adjustments of Errors. In the event of under-deductions or over-deductions, adjustments will be made in subsequent deductions.

Section 4.6. Fair Share. Employees who are not members of the Union paying dues by voluntary payroll deduction shall be required to pay in lieu of dues, their proportionate fair share of the cost of the collective bargaining process in accordance with the applicable Labor Relations Act. For the purpose of this Section, proportionate share shall not exceed the regular monthly dues of membership in the Union.

Section 4.7. Commencement of Employee Obligations. All employees who have not previously made application for membership in the Union, and employees hired on or after the effective date of this Agreement who have not made application for membership in the Union and authorized deduction of dues on or before the thirtieth (30th) day of their employment, shall be required to pay a fair share fee as defined above. The Employer shall begin deduction of fair share fees no later than thirty (30) days after notification from the Union as to which bargaining unit members have not authorized dues deductions.

Section 4.8. Indemnify. The Union shall indemnify and save the Employer harmless against all and any claims, demands, suits or other forms of liability that shall arise out of, or by reason of, action taken or not taken, by the Employer in reliance upon the authorization furnished to the Employer by the Union, or for the purpose of complying with any of the provisions of this Article.

Subcontracting

It is the general policy of the Employer to continue to utilize employees to perform work they are qualified to perform. However, the Employer reserves the right to contract out any work it deems necessary in the interest of economy, improved work product, or emergency, provided that such subcontracting does not cause layoff or reduction of the work force or reduction of work hours for bargaining unit employees. The use of volunteers and interns may continue in accordance with past practice.

ARTICLE 7

Non-Discrimination

Section 7.1. Prohibition Against Discrimination. The Employer and the Union shall not discriminate against any employee covered by this Agreement in a manner which would violate any applicable laws. The Employer will continue to provide equal opportunity for all employees and develop and apply equal employment practices.

Section 7.2. Union Membership. Neither the Employer nor the Union shall interfere with the right of employees covered by this Agreement to become or not become members of the Union and there shall be no discrimination against any such employees because of Union membership or nonmembership or the exercise of their lawful rights.

Section 7.3. Gender. Any reference in this Agreement to the male gender shall be construed to pertain to both male and female.

Section 7.4. Alleged Violations. The parties agree that this Article cannot be the sole basis of a grievance if the employee (or the Union on the employee's behalf) has filed a claim, charge or complaint related to the same or similar facts which is pending before an authorized administrative agency or court for resolution.

ARTICLE 8

No Strike/No Lockout

Section 8.1. No Strike Commitment. Neither the Union or any employee will call, initiate, authorize, participate in, sanction, encourage, or ratify any work stoppage, slow down, or the concerted interference with the full, faithful and proper performance of the duties of employment with the Employer during the term of this Agreement. Neither the Union nor any employee shall refuse to cross any picket line by whomever established. It is recognized that employees covered by this Agreement may be required in the line of duty to perform duties growing out of or connected with labor disputes which may arise within the County. The Union agrees that no disciplinary action or other action will be taken by the Union against any employee or employees covered by this Agreement by reason of any such action or conduct in the line of duty.

Section 8.2. Resumption of Operations. In the event of action prohibited by Section 1 above, the Union immediately shall disavow such action and request the employees to return to work, and shall use its best efforts to achieve a prompt resumption of normal operations.

Section 8.3. Discipline of Strikers. Any employee who violates the provisions of Section 1 of this Article shall be subject to immediate discipline, up to and including discharge. Employees are hereby advised that the Employer will give serious consideration to discharge in such circumstances. Any action taken by the Employer against any employee who participates in an action prohibited by Section 8.1 above shall not be considered as a violation of this Agreement, shall not be subject to the provisions of the grievance procedure, except that the issue of whether an employee in fact participated in a prohibited action shall be subject to the grievance and arbitration procedure.

4. Has been laid-off for a period of three (3) years.
5. Is laid-off and fails to report to work when recalled within a period of ten (10) working days. If the employee requests, in writing, additional time to return to work, said time may be granted. While on lay-off it shall be the responsibility of the employee to keep the Employer informed of the employee's current address and telephone number. If a recall notice is not properly delivered because of the employee's failure to meet this obligation, the employee may be discharged at the Employer's discretion.

Section 9.4. New Hire. All new employees shall be on new hire probation for the first six (6) months of their employment. The probation period may be extended by agreement among the Employer, the employee and the Union. Employees may be disciplined while on new hire probation and shall have no recourse to the grievance procedure.

Section 9.5. Seniority Retention. When an employee transfers employment from one Adams County office to another, said employee carries over seniority for vacation accrual and pay purposes. An employee who terminates employment with Adams County but who seeks to return and is rehired within six (6) months carries over that employee's previously accrued seniority for vacation accrual and pay purposes. In the event that more than six (6) months have passed, the Employer may negotiate with the employee with regard to the vacation and pay level in which the employee shall be placed. This Section shall not be construed to mean that a former employee has the right to be rehired, that a current employee has a right to be transferred or that a transfer is guaranteed.

Bidding

Section 10.1. Posting of Vacancies. When a new job opening is created or a vacancy exists within recognized Union position classifications, said job shall be posted for seven (7) working days on the bulletin board.

Such posting shall state the job classification available, rate of pay, qualifications, number of openings available and the date and hour the bidding will be closed.

Section 10.2. Bidding Process (Office by Office). To be eligible to bid, an employee must work in the office where the vacancy exists.

Eligible employees within the Bargaining Unit, interested in bidding such openings must sign a bid slip and give it to his Union Representative who will deposit said slip with the appropriate Department Head or his/her designated representative. Employees on active employment probation are not eligible to bid. An employee cannot withdraw his bid once it has been given to the Union Representative.

Said opening(s) shall be awarded by ability and qualifications of those who have bid on said opening(s). Seniority shall govern when the ability and qualifications of employees involved to perform work required are relatively equal.

If more than two (2) additional vacancies are created by filling an initial vacancy, the Employer may fill that fourth vacancy and subsequent resulting vacancies by means other than the process specified in this Article.

Section 10.3. Successful Bids. All bid forms shall be made available for review on request from the Union. The Employer will notify the successful bidders no later than five (5) days after the bidding is closed. The first forty-five (45) days in the new position shall be a probationary period. At any time during this period the Employer may return the employee to the position held prior to bidding or the employee may choose to return to the position held prior to bidding. The forty-five (45) day period may be extended upon mutual agreement among the Employer, the employee, and the Union.

Section 10.4. Lack of Successful Bids. If no employee has bid on the vacancy, the Employer may award the vacancy to any employee subject to the employee's consent; recall an employee who is on layoff; leave the vacancy open; or hire a new employee. However, no new employee may be hired until all employees on layoff are recalled who have the ability and qualifications and are capable of performing the job.

ARTICLE 11

Personnel Records

Section 11.1. The Employer and the Union agree to abide by all applicable State and Federal laws relating to employees' access to their personnel records during the term of this Agreement.

- (b) Suspensions – three (3) years without the same or similar misconduct.

Such removal shall be at the request of the employee but, in any case, shall not be used against the employee.

Employee Discipline

Section 12.1. Just Cause. The Employer and the Union agree with the tenets of progressive and corrective discipline to improve behavior and/or performance. Nevertheless, severe discipline, up to and including discharge, may be appropriate so long as the discipline is commensurate with the severity of the offense. Discipline shall normally be limited to:

- a) Oral reprimand
- b) Written reprimand
- c) Suspension
- d) Discharge

Non-probationary employees shall not be discharged, suspended, reprimanded, relieved from duty or otherwise disciplined in any manner without just cause. If the Employer has reason to reprimand an employee, it shall be done in a manner that will not embarrass the employee before other employees or the public. Discipline shall be administered in a timely manner depending on the circumstances of such discipline.

Section 12.2. Oral Reprimands. When an oral reprimand is given, the supervisor must inform the employee that he/she is receiving an oral reprimand and the reasons for the discipline. Oral reprimands will be recorded in the employee's personnel file by a written memorandum clearly designated as a written notation of an oral reprimand. A copy of the notation shall be provided to the employee.

Section 12.3. Notice to Union. In the event of disciplinary action, the Employer shall promptly furnish the employee, Union Committee person and Business Representative with a clear and concise written statement of the reasons therefore. In the case of an oral reprimand the written statement shall be a copy of the notation referenced in Section 2. An employee shall be entitled to the presence of a Union representative at all meetings for which the employee has reasonable grounds to believe that the meeting may be used to support the disciplinary action. However, nothing herein shall prohibit supervisors from presenting the written statement to an employee in the absence of a Union representative providing that there is no discussion at the time, of the substance of the discipline. In addition, nothing herein shall provide the employee the right to refuse to meet with a supervisor about business related non-disciplinary matters.

ARTICLE 13

The Circuit Clerk or his designee shall answer said grievance within five (5) working days.

Step 2: If not settled in Step 1, the grievance shall be reduced to writing and signed by the aggrieved employee and the Union Steward, and shall be presented to the Circuit Clerk or his designee within five (5) work days from the Circuit Clerk's Step 1 response.

Step 3: If not settled in Step 2, the grievance may be submitted to a two (2) person ad hoc grievance board. The submission will be made by the Union in the form of a written request to the Circuit Clerk to convene the board. Such request must be made within ten (10) work days. Within five (5) days of the submission, the Union and the Circuit Clerk shall designate one (1) person to serve on the board, which shall be convened during the work day within ten (10) workdays of the submission. Either the Union or the Circuit Clerk may discontinue using the grievance board by providing the other party with fifteen (15) work days' written notice of cancellation.

The parties shall jointly request a list of seven (7) arbitrators from FMCS within ten (10) work days after notification. Either party may reject the initial list and request a second list from FMCS within ten (10) work days after receipt. Following a coin toss to determine the first strike, the parties shall alternately strike names until only one remains, the remaining name shall be the arbitrator to be appointed. The arbitrator shall have no power to add to, subtract from, or modify any of the provisions of this Agreement. The arbitrator may consider and decide only the particular issue or issues presented to him by the Employer and the Union, and his decision must be based solely upon an interpretation of the provisions of this Agreement. The arbitrator shall render a decision not later than thirty (30) days from the day of the arbitration hearing. The arbitrator's decision shall be final and binding on the parties. All costs of the arbitration, except witness fees, shall be paid equally by the Employer and the Union. All hearings are to be held in Quincy, Illinois, unless all parties agree to a different location.

Section 13.2. Should an appeal not be given by either the grievant or the Union within the specified time limits, the grievance will be considered to have been settled.

Section 13.3. Unless otherwise noted, all time limits set forth in each of the steps shall be exclusive of Saturdays, Sundays, and holidays or any day observed as a holiday unless so noted to the contrary. Both parties may mutually agree to extend the time limits allotted to any step in the grievance arbitration procedure.

Section 13.4. Discharge cases shall be taken up in Step 2 of the grievance procedure within three (3) work days from the date of discharge; otherwise, any grievance pertaining to said discharge will be deemed to have been waived.

Layoffs

Section 14.1. Layoffs. In the event of a job discontinuance or a layoff, employees with the least hire date seniority in the affected classification within the affected office, shall be removed from their classification, the Employer shall notify the Union thirty (30) days prior to the intended effective date of a layoff.

Probationary employees and summer help shall be laid off prior to any non-probationary employees being laid off.

Section 14.2. Bumping Rights. Employees removed from the affected classifications shall exercise their hire date seniority in any other classification within the office in which the employee has previously held, can perform the work or can become qualified to perform within forty-five (45) working days, which time period may be extended by mutual agreement in cases where higher skilled positions are affected. If said employee becomes qualified, then the employee with the last hire date in the classification within the office will be displaced. If said employee cannot become qualified within forty-five (45) working days, he shall be laid off.

Employees bumped from any classification in accordance with these provisions shall exercise their hire date seniority in the same manner in any classification in which they can perform the work or can become qualified to perform work within forty-five (45) working days.

Section 14.3. Recall. Subject to the provision of Section 9.3, laid off employees shall be eligible for recall in the reverse order of layoff to the job classification from which they were removed or to a job classification which the employee previously held. If a recall notice is not properly delivered because of the employee's failure to meet the obligation of informing the Employer of the employee's most current residence while on layoff, the employee may be discharged at the Employer's discretion unless the employee was unable to supply the information for a reason beyond the employee's control.

New Technology

It is the Employer's policy to assure that training is available for affected employees so that they may have the opportunity to acquire the knowledge and skills to participate in and share the benefits of the continuous improvement process.

The Employer shall not use technological changes for the sole purpose of converting jobs from bargaining unit status to non-bargaining unit status.

ARTICLE 16

Leaves of Absence

Section 16.1. General Leave. The Employer may grant regular employees leaves of absence without pay for a period not to exceed three (3) calendar months in any twelve (12) month period for purposes that are deemed beneficial to County service. Such leave may be extended for good cause by the Employer for an additional period not to exceed three (3) calendar months.

Upon return from a general leave the employee will return to a position equivalent to the one held prior to taking the leave.

An employee who fails to provide a reasonable excuse and notice to the Employer and fails to return to work at the time specified in his request for leave, shall be considered to have abandoned his position and shall be terminated.

An employee may use accumulated vacation or personal days before being placed on an unpaid general leave.

Section 16.3. Jury Duty. Any employee who is called and thereby required to appear for jury service, witness service or a coroner's panel, shall be excused for each day of service falling on his regular workdays, with pay. The employee must immediately return to work upon being excused from jury duty. Failure to immediately return to work upon being excused from jury duty may subject an employee to discipline. The employee shall return the check received for jury duty.

Section 16.4. Court Appearance. Attendance at a court or quasi-judicial hearing, as required by subpoena or notice to appear, that is directly job related, is an official duty assignment and the Employer shall be notified of said duty. Permission to omit this duty must be obtained from the Judge or attorney handling the case, or other competent court official. Once an employee is served with a subpoena or notice to appear, it will remain in effect until cancelled by a competent court official. Employees shall make every effort to keep themselves informed of the status of their court cases and to be available to give court testimony as required.

When employees are required to appear in court, and where said appearance is related to their duties as an employee of Adams County, they shall be compensated with overtime pay at one and one-half (1½) times their hourly rate, if said appearance is made during off duty time.

When employees are required to appear in court for reasons other than work related, the required time off must be approved by the Employer and the employee may utilize appropriate time off such as personal time and/or time off without pay.

Section 16.5. Medical Leave. Regular employees who have utilized twenty (20) sick days or have exhausted all sick leave and are unable to report to or back to work because of the start of, or continuance of, their sickness or injury, including pregnancy related disability may be granted an unpaid disability leave. This Section in no way affects IMRF eligibility or IMRF benefits. Such leave will not be granted for a period in excess of three (3) months but may be extended upon written request of the employee for an additional period of up to three (3) months, at the Employer's discretion. Additional three (3) month extensions may be granted by the Employer if a physician certifies that the leave is a bonafide medical emergency or illness. The Employer may require an independent medical examination before approving the final leave extension. Prior to requesting said leave, the employee shall inform the Employer in writing about the nature of the disability and length of time needed for leave. The request for said leave shall be accompanied by a written statement from the attending physician which includes the diagnosis, prognosis and expected duration of the disability. If the Employer has reasons to believe the employee is able to perform his regular assigned duties and the employee's physician certifies him as being able or unable to report back to work, the Employer may rely upon the decision of an impartial physician of its choosing as to the employee's ability to return to work. Such examination shall be paid for by the Employer. During said leave, the disabled employee shall provide written verification by a licensed physician at the Employer's request. Such verification shall show the diagnosis, prognosis and expected duration of the disability; such verification shall be made no less often than every thirty (30) days during a period of disability. Such leave cannot be arbitrarily or capriciously denied.

Members of the bargaining unit shall be granted leave pursuant to the Family and Medical Leave Act.

Section 16.6. Personal Days. Each employee shall be granted up to three (3) days off annually to be used for personal reasons which cannot be scheduled outside of the employee's work time. Personal time is not cumulative from one (1) calendar year to another. An employee will not be compensated for unused personal time. Personal time may be used in increments of one-half (1/2) hours or more.

Section 16.7. Bereavement Leave.
